

ROMA GRADUATE PREPARATION PROGRAM (RGPP) APPLICATION CALL 2024-2025

DEADLINE: APRIL 8, 2024

WHAT IS RGPP ABOUT?

RGPP is a full-time training program at the Central European University (CEU). It prepares Roma persons to apply for master's studies. Overall, more than 80% of our RGPP alumni gained admission to a master's program of their choice. The RGPP program's duration is 10 months.

WHAT DOES OFFER TO YOU?

- intensive academic English classes
- academic tutoring and research in your field of interest
- introduction into Critical Romani Studies
- diverse group of Roma from many countries
- elective Romani language lessons
- critical skills and competencies master's students and junior researchers need
- guidance to help you define and realize your academic and professional goals
- scholarship package

The scholarship package includes monthly stipend for living expenses, accommodation, visa and travel costs, health insurance, tuition fee, and enrollment fee.

WHAT DO YOU NEED TO APPLY?

- openly self-identify as Roma
- submit completed online application form before the deadline
- earn your BA degree by 2024 June
- have intermediate English skills
- have a strong interest to apply to master's studies
- be willing and able to participate in a full-time and in-person program

LEARN MORE AND START YOUR APPLICATION AT:
HTTPS://ROMANISTUDIES.CEU.EDU

